CORAM : V.M. KANADE, J.
DATED : 13.08.2004.

PC:-

Heard the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the Petitioner and Respondent Company. The petitioner was an employee of the Respondent Company. The petitioner's case is that his services were terminated and his dues of salary and other dues have not been paid. A Statutory notice was sent by the Petitioner to the company, stating therein that the Company is liable to pay an amount of Rs. 2,88,600.00/- alongwith interest. Thereafter, the company petition is filed and in reply, the Company has stated that the entire dues of the petitioner have been paid by the Respondent Compnay and they annexed two vouchers at Exhs. 1 and 2 to their affidavit -in-reply. In my view, the company petition is not maintainable and the petitioner has alternate remedy, which can be availed by him by filing a proper claim before the competent Forum. There is no merit in this petition. Hence, the same is dismissed.
